

Effective from May 1st, 2019, Tri-Service General Hospital (TSGH) offers preferred pricing benefits for police officers, firefighters, coastguardsmen, national airborne service corps members, and central police university staffs seeking healthcare services in TSGH. Qualified uniformed service members are more than welcome!

Beneficiary Groups Qualified for Preferred Pricing Benefits
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>● Police officers (active duty and retired) or their bereaved dependents</li> <li>● Central Police University officers, staffs, faculty members (active duty and retired), and their bereaved dependents</li> <li>● National Fire Agency officers and staffs (active duty and retired) and their bereaved dependents</li> <li>● Coast Guard Administration officers and staffs (active duty and retired) and their bereaved dependents</li> <li>● National Airborne Service Corps officers, staffs, and faculty members (active duty and retired) and their bereaved dependents</li> </ul>
Healthcare Services Included for Preferred Pricing Benefits
Outpatient	Exemptions for Outpatient Registration Fee and NHI Copayment
	Active Duty Uniformed Service Members Eligible for Express Lane Services Available to Active Duty Armed Forces Members
Emergency Medicine	Exemptions for Outpatient Registration Fee and NHI Copayment
	Priority Treatment (same as that offered to active duty armed forces service members), Based upon Degree of Medical Urgency
Inpatient	Exemptions for NHI Copayment
	Priority Allocation of Inpatient Treatment Bed and Nursing Home, the Same as Those Available to Active Duty Armed Forces Members
Legend	To Enjoy Above-listed Benefits, Qualified Beneficiaries Must Present Photo ID and NHI Card upon Seeking Care in TSGH for Beneficiary Identity Computer System Verification. Beneficiaries Who Do Not Present Required IDs Must Self-pay Healthcare Expenditure First, and Claim Reimbursement Afterwards.